

Goodland, Kansas – July 12th – It is with deep sorrow and heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Curtis Duncan, a cherished member of our broadcasting family and a pillar of the Northwest Kansas community. Curtis, who dedicated nearly 30 years of his life to our stations, passed away last night, leaving behind a legacy of exceptional service and heartfelt connection.

Curtis Duncan's career was marked by his unwavering commitment to his craft and his community. In 2019, he was honored with the Sonny Slater Award for Service to the Station and Community, a testament to his outstanding contributions. His work earned numerous accolades from the Kansas Association of Broadcasters for his exceptional news and weather coverage, showcasing his dedication and excellence in journalism.

Known for his unparalleled enthusiasm and dedication, Curtis was a constant presence in Goodland and the surrounding areas. Whether reporting on local events or engaging with community leaders, educators, and students, Curtis's passion for storytelling and his genuine interest in the lives of those he served made him an indispensable part of the community. His presence at local events, from school activities to town meetings, was a hallmark of his commitment to the people of Northwest Kansas.

Curtis's impact on our station, our listeners, and the community cannot be overstated. He was not just a broadcaster; he was a friend, a mentor, and a source of reliable information and support. His absence leaves a void that will be deeply felt by his family, our staff, and the many residents of Northwest Kansas who knew and loved him.

As we grieve the loss of Curtis Duncan, we take comfort in the indelible mark he has left on our hearts and the community he so dearly cherished. Information regarding a memorial service will be made available soon. In the meantime, we invite everyone to join us in honoring his remarkable life and celebrating the profound impact he made.

Curtis Duncan will be greatly missed, and his legacy will live on through the countless lives he touched. There will never be another like him.
